

DAILY TRACKER

Taliban's extremist implementation of sharia law

---

1. Failing that, they pounced on Fahima Rahmati's home, where they abused her and her family and threatened them. Although they talk about amnesty, their fighters harass and deprive innocent Afghans of their rights every day.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436770537179688962>

2. According to her, the Taliban assaulted her and her home in Parwan, Afghanistan, and no one came to defend them. Afghan daughters are being targeted while others around them do nothing.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436351466059575298>

3. After the Taliban announced their government on 7th September. They faced criticism all around especially Biden's terminally naïve and deluded State Department handlers were not happy and thus they issued a statement that Afghan people deserve a more inclusive government, they also complaint that the new Taliban government "consists exclusively of individuals who are members of the Taliban or their close associates and no women." And not only that: the Taliban have dropped the Ministry for Women's Affairs altogether, and replaced it with a feature of their first regime: the Ministry for the Propagation of Virtue and Prevention of Vice.

Source: The Taliban's Sharia Police Are Back, and They're Mad \(jihadwatch.org\)

4. According to former UK Prime Minister Tony Blair, Islamism, both the doctrine and the violence, is a first-order security danger that, if left unchecked, would come to us even if centred far from us, as 9/11 proved. The former prime minister was speaking at the Royal United Services Institute (RUSI) in London on the 20th anniversary of the terrorist attacks in the United States on September 11, 2001.

Source: <https://samvadaworld.com/featured/islamism-first-order-security-threat-taliban-part-of-the-global-movement-of-radical-islam-says-tony-blair/>

Human Rights under Taliban

---

1. Women in Afghanistan are obliged to sit veiled, carrying Taliban flags and listening to Taliban instructions. In order to convey the false message that Afghan women support them and prefer to cover themselves fully, the Taliban have shared these images.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436631630421139457>

2. In front of the Taliban in Kabul, a brave Afghan woman demands freedom of speech, democracy, and the right to resist invasion. She claims that we, the New Generation, are not afraid of death and that we will fight for our freedom and rights.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436303005985431552>

3. In a video uploaded in a private Taliban chat channel, the Taliban killed an Afghan local police officer and then sang homage to their commander while carrying the severed head of their victim by his hair.

Source: <https://www.msn.com/en-us/news/world/taliban-celebrate-beheading-of-police-officer-in-grisly-video/ar-AAOjgtU?ocid=st#image=1>

4. A new Taliban film shown on Afghan state television blames America for the 9/11 attacks, claiming the assaults were the consequence of Muslim global hostility.

Source: <https://twitter.com/DocCyberFL/status/1436712006573346816?s=08>

5. A Taliban spokesperson made it clear what role women will play in the new administration, and it does not bode well for those wishing for a more inclusive government. Sayed Zekrullah Hashimi, speaking on Afghanistan's Tolo News on Thursday, claimed that women are incapable of fulfilling government functions.

Source: https://news.yahoo.com/taliban-spokesman-says-women-incapable-210600405.html?soc\_src=social-sh&soc\_trk=tw&tsrc=twtr

6. Taliban are cruel towards their own people, this is a serious war crime and above all a grave humanitarian crisis. People are being ruthlessly killed by the oppressive regime.

Source: <https://twitter.com/HashimWahdatyar/status/1436731657227231236>

7. Eric Schwartz, President of Refugees Intl, former Asst Secretary State PRM, worked at UN, White House, as Congressional staff. He wrote to President Biden urging him to take 6 urgent steps to aid Afghans at risk. First, he urged to appoint a special presidential envoy for Afghan humanitarian and refugee issues. Second, he urged to encourage the UN Secretary General to appoint a UN special envoy for Afghan humanitarian and refugee issues. Third, to ensure that the airport in Kabul is secured and is used as long as possible to help evacuate Afghans targeted by the Taliban. Fourth, he urged to press as hard as possible for the establishment of a humanitarian corridor to facilitate the flight for those Afghans at risk who will not be able to depart by air. Fifth, to strongly support aid to regional host countries—and commit to substantial U.S. resettlement of Afghans as part of an international effort and Sixth, he urged that the administration engage the Afghan diaspora community on these critical issues.

Source: <https://www.refugeesinternational.org/reports/2021/8/16/refugees-international-letter-to-president-biden-urges-immediate-action-to-protect-afghans-at-risk>

12 Sep 2021

8. Taliban terrorist have taken this as an opportunity to violate human rights against the Afghan people, especially women. They are beating women like anything, they are continuously torturing all the people of the country.

Source: <https://twitter.com/dturkis1/status/1436866650977013761?s=08>

9. The UN's Office for the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) has issued a warning regarding ongoing Taliban human rights violations against women, reminding everyone that peaceful assembly is a protected right, even for Afghan women.

Source: https://twitter.com/JOI\_HumanRights/status/1436817443251494912?s=08

10. The claims from Panjshir are alarming, according to Shahrzad Akbar, the director of Afghanistan's Independent Human Rights Commission. She called on the Taliban to establish an impartial inquiry into Panjshir, claiming that the purposeful slaughter of civilians was a war crime.

Source: <https://twitter.com/EhsanRaheemi/status/1436753593735000064?s=08>

11. As the viciously anti-LGBTQ Taliban takes control Afghanistan, many human rights groups are urging the Biden administration to do more to assist #LGBTQ individuals in Afghanistan seeking refuge in the United States.

Source: <https://www.lgbtqnation.com/2021/09/lgbtq-organizations-press-joe-biden-protect-queer-trans-afghanistan-refugees/>

12. At least four people have been murdered in a Taliban crackdown on protests, according to a UN source. The organisation is doing house-to-house searches and threatening journalists, according to the official.

Source: https://www.theguardian.com/world/2021/sep/10/at-least-four-killed-in-taliban-crackdown-on-protests-says-un?CMP=Share\_AndroidApp\_Other

13. According to UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres, all countries should engage with the Taliban to send the message that the Afghan people should live in peace under an inclusive government that respects all basic human rights.

Source: <https://twitter.com/NCMOULY4/status/1436637059981012995?s=08>

14. In Kandahar, a squad of Taliban sent by Pakistan is hunting down former intelligence and police officials. So far, the gang has slain 20 men and obtained their identities and personal information. The Taliban in Kabul have no authority over the group and urge members to seek refuge.

Source: <https://twitter.com/HabibKhanT/status/1436787494645809159?s=08>

12 Sep 2021

15. Sara Seerat, a former adviser to the Ministry of Women's Affairs and a women's rights campaigner, was detained by the TBs in Kapisa. Ms. Seerat and a group of other women marched at Mahmud Raqi to demand women's rights and independence, as well as to protest Pakistani interference.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AsvakaNews/status/1435895117462839302?s=08>

16. Iran's UN envoy, Majid Takhtorvanchi, denounced the Taliban's offensive on Panjshir, stating that any government in Afghanistan that "comes to power" "by force" would not be recognised. For the Taliban administration to be recognised, he set a number of criteria.

Source: <https://twitter.com/bbcafgghanistan/status/1436292875063644162?s=08>

17. According to the Pakistani news agency PTI, Pakistan's national security advisor urged on the international community to engage with the Taliban in order to avoid another refugee catastrophe. Pakistan NSA Moeed Yusuf, speaking at a webcast on Afghanistan's future and regional stability, warned that abandoning the war-torn nation would be a mistake.

Source: <https://www.hindustantimes.com/world-news/pak-nsa-calls-on-countries-to-engage-with-taliban-warns-about-cost-of-abandonment-101631375677519.html>

Current Situation

---

1. In an interview to CNN, Fawzia Koofi, first women deputy speaker of Parliament in Afghanistan said The incredible bravery of women protesting for their rights in Afghanistan won't end. She also added that the Taliban need to realize times have changed and women won't go backwards. "Afghanistan can't fly with one wing."

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/holmesCNN/status/1436924003130789890>

2. As the United States and the rest of the world commemorated the twentieth anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, the Taliban flag flew over the Afghan presidential palace also Amrullah Saleh's nephew, stated that the Taliban killed Saleh's brother and his chauffeur in the northern Panjshir Province on September 11.

Source: <https://www.thehindu.com/news/international/september-12-afghanistan-crisis-live-updates/article36410662.ece>

3. Due to the unrest on the Afghan border, Russia has given over 12 upgraded armoured reconnaissance & patrol vehicles (BRDM-2M) to Tajikistan's military forces.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/TangoCharlie108/status/1436923298462404611>

4. US and Afghan intelligence sources say the Taliban removed all young boys from their homes in Panjshir valley, Afghanistan.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/laralogan/status/1436741354936324100>

5. By the hands of the enemies of Afghan nation, Afghan National Army vehicles are left in the hands of children to be used by them. Damaged and abandoned ANA vehicle being played with by children.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436771802605293570>

6. This is the real face of the Taliban. They are torturing people. They portray themselves as humans, but are cowards who torture people in the name of their religion.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436739340734980096>

7. Resistance Forces are battling for Afghanistan's independence from the Taliban savages. In Panjshir, they are putting up a valiant fight and resisting Taliban onslaught.

Source: <https://mobile.twitter.com/IhteshamAfghan/status/1436358249922514946>

8. According to CNN, heavy combat broke out overnight between the Taliban and the National Resistance Front (NRF), the multi-ethnic force in charge of the valley. According to a NRF commander, battle resumed on Friday morning in Panjshir's Shatal area. Hundreds of Taliban militants were killed or wounded in the previous day's battles, according to the commander, a claim disputed by Taliban authorities.

Source: <https://nationalinterest.org/blog/buzz/panjshir-resistance-heavy-fighting-taliban-escalate-attacks-193215>

9. The Taliban have started another round of strikes in the Panjshir Valley in northeastern Afghanistan, only days after shutting down the region's telephone and Internet connection.

Source: <https://nationalinterest.org/blog/middle-east-watch/both-sides-claim-victory-taliban-renews-panjshir-offensive-192834>

10. Hundreds of ethnic Tajiks have volunteered to join the anti-Taliban alliance emerging in Afghanistan's Panjshir Valley in southern Tajikistan.

Source: <https://nationalinterest.org/blog/buzz/tajik-group%C2%A0volunteers%C2%A0-join%C2%A0panjshir%C2%A0resistance-192732>

11. Malala Yousufzai at the UNSC talked about the plight of Afghan women. Her move was criticised by on the basis that she cannot represent Afghan women as Afghan women can represent themselves such as Wazhma Frogh, Mary Akrami, Asila Nehan Nargis etc.

12 Sep 2021

Source: <https://twitter.com/YaldaRoyan/status/1436678351092162566?s=08>

12. At the independence Day celebrations in Tajikistan, The president of Tajikistan Emomali Rakhmon has said he will not leave the Afghan people alone and will stand by Afghanistan on bad days.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AhmadQasani/status/1436896598328549378?s=08>

13. People are being forcibly removed from #Panjshir, according to footage that has surfaced on social media. According to a local from Bazark, almost 90% of the people has fled the town. He said that just one family remained in the whole Mala village in Bazarak.

Source: https://twitter.com/Samiullah\_mahdi/status/1436676566759743493?s=08

14. Afghan ladies wore complete burkas and screamed "death to America" as they marched with Taliban militants standing guard during a pro-Taliban.

Source: <https://twitter.com/CBSNews/status/1436779128884273154?s=08>

15. A grave humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan, people are being ruthlessly tortured, ripped off and beaten up by the extremist Taliban.

Source: <https://twitter.com/GovtOfPanjshir/status/1436759497993703424?s=08>

16. In Moscow, Qatari Foreign Minister Mohammed bin Abdul Rahman Al Thani met with his Russian colleague Sergei Lavrov to explore ways to improve international cooperation in support of Afghanistan's peace and stability.

Source: <https://twitter.com/TOLONews/status/1436928350841417728?s=08>

17. Since 2001, at least 100 journalists, including 16 international journalists, have been killed in Afghanistan, 60 media establishments have been assaulted and damaged, and hundreds of threats against journalists and media outlets have been documented, according to Reporters Without Borders.

Source: <https://twitter.com/TOLONews/status/1436643511424753665?s=08>

18. Hizb-e-Islami leader Gulbuddin Hekmatyar expressed his support for the Taliban government on Friday. He also urged the public, particularly his followers, to follow suit.

Source: <https://twitter.com/TOLONews/status/1436636182130139138?s=08>

12 Sep 2021

19. According to AFP, Pakistan International Airlines (PIA) will restart flights from Islamabad to Kabul next week, making it the first foreign commercial flight to Kabul since the Taliban took power in mid-August.

Source: <https://twitter.com/TOLOnews/status/1436587340215078912?s=08>

20. In the last three days, nine foreigners, including dozens of Americans, have flown out of Kabul aboard Qatar planes, according to Zalmi Khalilzad, the US special envoy for Afghan reconciliation. According to Khalilzad, talks are ongoing with Qatar, the Taliban, and other parties to guarantee that the remaining foreigners and Afghan expatriates depart.

Source: <https://twitter.com/TOLOnews/status/1436573332309266433?s=08>

21. Hundreds of Afghans demonstrated in Hamburg, Germany on September 12th in support of the national flag, calling on the international community to apply pressure on the Taliban to secure women's rights, Afghanistan's existence, and the defence of national dignity. Human and civic rights, as well as freedom.

Source: <https://twitter.com/pajhwok/status/1436802845647462406?s=08>

22. UN Secretary-General António Guterres has invited the international community to join him in Geneva, both in person and digitally, to express solidarity with the Afghan people and commit practical help to meet their vital humanitarian needs.

Source: https://pajhwok.com/2021/09/11/un-seeks-606mn-for-afghanistan-in-geneva-meeting/?utm\_source=dlvr.it&utm\_medium=twitter

23. Domestic flights have already started, according to Mawlawi Abdul Hadi Hamdan, head of Kabul airport, and technical preparations are underway to restore all international flights.

Source: <https://ariananews.af/kabul-airport-set-to-resume-normal-flight-operations-in-next-few-days/#.YT155VXli8s.twitter>

24. Mujahid said at a rally in Paktia province, "Efforts [are] ongoing... The signs are that the Islamic Emirate will be acknowledged on a global scale. What duties do they want? First and foremost, the country's security is maintained. Second, the world is concerned that Afghanistan may become a danger to them; the Islamic Emirate has a clear policy on this, and we have told them that this would not be the case.

Source: <https://ariananews.af/signs-positive-that-intl-community-will-recognize-islamic-emirate-mujahid/#.YT15iem6h2c.twitter>

25. Former United States President Donald Trump has criticized President Biden's administration for hastily withdrawing US troops from Afghanistan.

12 Sep 2021

Source: <https://twitter.com/PazadiRadio/status/1436861730508902400?s=08>

26. The Ministry of Finance (MoF) in Afghanistan has announced in a press release that all its employees should report for duty on Saturday that is September 26

Source: <https://twitter.com/PazadiRadio/status/1436641853219168262?s=08>

27. According to Reuters, the Taliban executed Abdullah Saleh's uncle, refused to let his relatives to bury him, and declared his body "must rot." Mr. Ruhollah Saleh was allegedly slain in Panjshir fighting, according to reports from the Taliban's traditional news outlet Al-Amara.

Source: <https://twitter.com/bbcdfghanistan/status/1436470505112997897?s=08>

28. The Taliban's acting prime minister told Al Jazeera Arabic in his first interview that the Taliban was a "gentle and caring group" that did not want retribution, and that no one else could prove it.

Source: <https://twitter.com/bbcdfghanistan/status/1435986646797856776?s=08>

29. Hamid Karzai, the former Afghan president, met with a group of elders, religious experts, and youngsters from the country's core districts on Saturday. During the conference, speakers asked for total peace and stability in the country, as well as the inclusion of the caretaker government as soon as possible, so that all Afghans may see themselves in it. Confirming what members of parliament had stated, the former president underlined the country's security and stability, saying that he government's inclusivity represents the country's whole face.

Source: <https://twitter.com/KarzaiH/status/1436675051911356424>

30. Jabbar Aryaei, a former adviser to the Afghan embassy in Germany, reported that Hanif Atmar had taken refuge in Germany.

Source: <https://twitter.com/AhmadQasani/status/1436863183168458752?s=08>